Scene 2

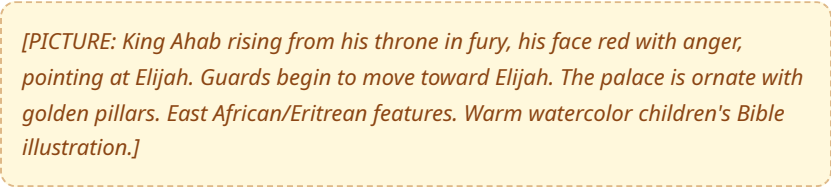

[PICTURE: Elijah standing boldly before King Ahab, delivering God's message with one hand raised toward heaven. The king's face shows shock and anger. Courtiers and guards look stunned in the background. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Elijah told King Ahab, "As the Lord God of Israel lives, there will be no rain or dew in this land for years — until I say so!" This was God's message to the wicked king.

Scene 3

King Ahab was furious! He did not want to hear God's message. But Elijah spoke bravely because he trusted God completely. The king wanted to punish Elijah, but God had a plan to protect His prophet.

Scene 4

[PICTURE: God speaking to Elijah in a soft glowing light. Elijah kneels with his head bowed, listening carefully. The words seem to come from a warm golden cloud above him. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

God spoke to Elijah and said, "Leave this place and go east. Hide by the brook called Cherith, near the Jordan River. You will drink water from the brook, and I will take care of you there."

ጌጌጌ ጌጌጌጌ ጌጌጌጌ "ጌጌጌ ጌጌ ጌጌጌ ጌጌ ጌጌ ጌጌጌጌ ጌጌ

Scene 5

[PICTURE: Elijah walking along a dusty path through dry hills, carrying only a simple staff. He heads eastward toward a green valley in the distance. The sun is setting behind him. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Elijah obeyed God right away! He left the palace and walked eastward toward the brook Cherith. He trusted that God would take care of him, even though he was going to a lonely, hidden place.

Scene 6

[PICTURE: Elijah arriving at a beautiful brook flowing between rocky hills with green bushes around it. Clear water flows gently over smooth stones. Elijah kneels to drink with a look of relief and gratitude. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Elijah found the brook Cherith! Cool, clear water flowed gently between the rocks. He knelt down and drank the fresh water. God had provided exactly what he needed. What a good God!

Scene 7

[PICTURE: Early morning at the brook. The sky is pink and orange with sunrise. Two large black ravens fly down toward Elijah carrying bread and meat in their beaks. Elijah looks up in amazement with outstretched hands. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Every morning, something wonderful happened! Big black ravens flew down from the sky carrying bread and meat in their beaks! They brought the food right to Elijah. God was feeding His prophet through birds!

Scene 8

[PICTURE: Evening time at the brook. The sky is purple and blue with stars appearing. Ravens again fly down bringing more bread and meat to Elijah, who sits on a rock waiting faithfully. A small fire glows nearby. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

And every evening, the ravens came again! They brought more bread and meat for Elijah's dinner. Morning and evening, God faithfully provided food. Elijah never went hungry because God kept His promise.

Scene 9

[PICTURE: Elijah sitting peacefully by the brook eating bread, with a raven perched on a nearby rock watching him. The scene is peaceful with green trees and flowers around the brook. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Elijah sat by the brook, eating the bread and meat the ravens brought. He drank cool water from the stream. Even though he was all alone, he felt God's love and care all around him.

Scene 10

[PICTURE: The land around the brook becoming dry and brown. The sun beats down harshly. Trees are wilting. But the brook still flows with water, keeping Elijah safe and hydrated in his hidden spot. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Days and weeks passed with no rain. The land became very dry and brown. Plants wilted and the ground cracked. But the brook Cherith still had water flowing, and the ravens still came every day. God was faithful!

Scene 11

[PICTURE: The brook Cherith getting smaller and smaller. The water is now just a tiny trickle between dry, cracked rocks. Elijah looks at the disappearing water with concern but still trusts God. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

But after many days without rain, the brook began to dry up. The water got less and less each day. Soon there was only a tiny trickle left. Elijah watched and wondered what God would do next.

Scene 12

[PICTURE: The brook completely dried up — only dusty rocks and cracked mud remain where water once flowed. Elijah kneels in prayer with hands raised to heaven, trusting God for his next step. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Finally, the brook dried up completely. There was no more water to drink. But Elijah did not panic! He prayed to God and waited. He knew that the same God who sent the ravens would provide again.

Scene 13

[PICTURE: God speaking to Elijah again in a warm golden light from above. Elijah listens attentively with his head bowed and hands open in obedience. The dried brook is visible behind him. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Then God spoke to Elijah again: "Get up and go to Zarephath, a town near Sidon. I have commanded a widow there to feed you." God already had a new plan ready!

ገጥ ለከባቢ ሰላምታ ለከባቢ ሰላምታ "ገጥብ ለገጥ ሰላም ሰላም ሰላም ሰላም ሰላም ሰላም ሰላም ሰላም ሰላም ሰላም ሰላም" ሰላም ሰላም ሰላም ሰላም ሰላም!

Scene 14

[PICTURE: Elijah walking on a long dusty road through a dry, barren landscape toward a distant town. He carries his staff and walks with determination and faith. The town of Zarephath can be seen on the horizon. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Elijah obeyed God immediately and set out on the long journey to Zarephath. The land was dry all around — no rain had fallen anywhere. But Elijah kept walking with faith in his heart, trusting God's word.

Scene 15

[PICTURE: Elijah arriving at the gate of Zarephath and seeing a thin, tired-looking widow gathering sticks on the ground. She wears simple worn clothes. Her young son peeks from behind her. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

When Elijah arrived at the gate of Zarephath, he saw a widow gathering sticks. She looked thin and tired. God told Elijah that this was the woman who would help him. He called out to her kindly.

Scene 16

[PICTURE: Elijah speaking gently to the widow at the town gate, asking her for water. She holds a bundle of sticks in her arms. Her face shows tiredness but kindness. A clay water jar sits nearby. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Elijah said to her, "Please bring me a little water in a cup so I may have a drink." The widow turned to go get him water. Then Elijah called out again with another request.

[PICTURE: Elijah asking the widow for bread. The widow turns back with a sad, worried expression, holding up her empty hands to show she has almost nothing. Her young son clings to her dress looking hungry. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Elijah said, "Please bring me a piece of bread too." The widow looked sad and said, "I swear by the Lord your God, I have no bread — only a handful of flour in a jar and a little olive oil in a jug."

Scene 19

[PICTURE: Elijah speaking to the widow with compassion and confidence, his hand gently raised in reassurance. His face is kind and his eyes show God's promise. The widow listens with a mixture of hope and doubt. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Elijah said kindly, "Don't be afraid! Go home and make your bread. But first make a small loaf for me, and then make some for yourself and your son. For the Lord God says: The flour will not run out and the oil will not dry up!"

Scene 20

[PICTURE: The widow in her simple kitchen, bravely making bread with her last flour. She pours from a small jar of flour and a jug of oil with faith in her eyes. Her son watches from a doorway. A warm fire burns in a clay oven. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The widow believed Elijah's words! She went home and did exactly as he said. With her last handful of flour and little bit of oil, she made bread for Elijah first, trusting God's promise with all her heart.

Scene 21

[PICTURE: The widow looking into her flour jar with amazement — it is still full! She holds the oil jug and it too still has oil. Her son jumps with joy behind her. A golden glow surrounds the jars showing God's miracle. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

A miracle happened! After she made bread for Elijah, she looked in her flour jar — it was still full! The oil jug still had oil! Just as God promised through Elijah, the flour and oil did not run out!

Scene 22

The widow, her son, and Elijah all ate together! There was enough food for everyone. Day after day, the flour jar was never empty and the oil jug always had oil. God's miracle continued every single day!

[PICTURE: The widow baking bread in her kitchen with a joyful face, pouring flour from a jar that never empties. Outside the window, the land is still dry, but inside the home is warm, bright, and full of food. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Even though the drought continued and others had no food, God kept providing for the widow, her son, and Elijah. The flour and oil lasted for many, many months — just as God had promised! He never forgot them.

They have their hands raised in praise and thanksgiving to God. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The widow learned to trust God through Elijah's faith. She saw that God is real and He keeps His promises! When she gave her last food in faith, God gave back more than she could imagine. He is a God of abundance!

[PICTURE: A child kneeling in prayer by their bed at night, with a thought bubble showing ravens bringing bread, and a flour jar overflowing. Stars twinkle outside the window. The child has a peaceful, trusting smile. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

God always provides for those who trust Him! He used ravens to bring food and a poor widow's jar to never run out. He uses unexpected ways to care for His children. Trust God — He will always take care of you!

The Moral of the Story

God always provides for those who trust Him. He uses unexpected ways to care for His children — whether through ravens, a widow's jar, or miracles we never imagined. When we obey and trust God, He never lets us go without.
