Scene 3

The ship sailed along the coast, but the winds were against them. The journey was slow and very difficult. The sailors had to work extra hard just to keep the ship moving forward.

Scene 9

[PICTURE: Passengers huddled together below deck in darkness, looking hopeless and exhausted. Some cry, some stare blankly. No sun or stars visible through a small porthole - only dark clouds and rain. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

For many days, they could not see the sun or the stars. No one knew where they were. The people had not eaten for a long time. Everyone gave up hope of being saved. They thought they were all going to die.

Scene 10

[PICTURE: Paul standing up boldly among the frightened passengers below deck. A warm golden light surrounds him as he speaks with confidence. People look up at him with surprise and attention. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

But Paul stood up among them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me! But take courage! Not one of you will lose your life. Only the ship will be lost. I know this because God told me!"

፳፻ ፳፻፻ ፳፻ ፳፻፻፻ ፳፻፻ "፳፻፻ ፳፻፻፻፻ ፳፻፻፻! ፳፻ ፳፻፻፻! ፳፻፻፻ ፳፻'፳ ፳፻፻ ፳፻፻፻፻፻ ፳፻፻ ፳፻፻'፳ ፳፻፻፻፻ ፳፻፻ ፳፻ ፳፻፻፻ ፳፻፻፻፻፻!" ፳፻፻

Scene 12

[PICTURE: Paul standing with arms raised encouragingly, speaking to a large crowd of 276 people packed below deck. Some faces show hope returning. Paul's expression is full of faith and confidence. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

"So keep up your courage, men!" Paul said with a strong voice. "I have faith in God that it will happen just as He told me. We will run aground on some island, but everyone will be safe!" There were 276 people on that ship, and Paul encouraged every one of them.

"፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻!" ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ "፳፻፳፻፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻ ፳፻ ፳፻ ፳፻፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻ ፳፻ ፳፻ ፳፻፳፻፳፻!" ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ 276 ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻፳፻፳፻

Scene 15

[PICTURE: Paul standing before the exhausted passengers, holding up bread and giving thanks to God. People watch him with tired but hopeful eyes. Dawn light begins to show through the ship's openings. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Just before dawn, Paul urged everyone to eat. "You haven't eaten for fourteen days!" he said. "Please eat something — you need strength. Not one hair from your head will be lost!" Then Paul took bread, gave thanks to God, and began to eat.

Scene 17

[PICTURE: Dawn breaking over a stormy sea, revealing a coastline with a sandy bay ahead. Sailors point excitedly toward the land. The ship heads toward the beach through rough waves. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

When daylight came, the sailors saw land! They didn't recognize the island, but they spotted a bay with a sandy beach. "Let's try to run the ship aground there!" they decided. They cut the anchors and headed for the beach.

Scene 19

[PICTURE: Roman soldiers drawing their swords, wanting to kill the prisoners so they won't escape. The centurion Julius stands between them with his hand raised, stopping them, protecting Paul. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The soldiers wanted to kill all the prisoners so they wouldn't escape by swimming away. But the centurion Julius wanted to save Paul's life! He ordered the soldiers to stop and not harm any prisoner.

Scene 20

[PICTURE: People jumping into the sea and swimming toward the sandy shore. Others grab wooden planks and pieces of the broken ship to float on. Waves carry them toward the beach. Some have already reached land safely. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The centurion ordered everyone who could swim to jump in first and swim to shore. The rest grabbed wooden planks and broken pieces of the ship and floated to land. One by one, everyone made it safely to the beach!

Scene 21

[PICTURE: People crawling onto a sandy beach, exhausted but alive. Some kneel in gratitude. Others hug each other with tears of joy. The broken ship is visible in the background among the waves. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

All 276 people made it to land alive — just as God had promised Paul! Not one person was lost. God kept His word perfectly. Even in the worst storm, God's promises never fail!

Scene 24

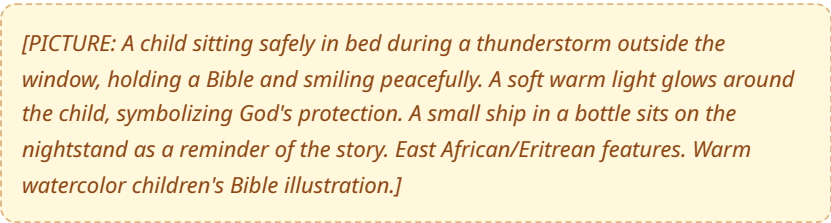

[PICTURE: Paul calmly shaking the snake off his hand into the fire. He shows no fear or harm. The islanders watch in amazement with wide eyes and open mouths, realizing God is protecting this man. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

But Paul simply shook the snake off into the fire and was not harmed at all! The people waited for him to swell up or fall dead, but nothing happened! They were amazed and said, "He must be a god!" God protected Paul through yet another miracle.

Scene 25

God was with Paul through the storm, the shipwreck, and the snakebite. And God is with you too! No matter what storms come in your life, God keeps His promises. Trust Him, be brave, and encourage others — just like Paul did!
