Scene 2

[PICTURE: An angry creditor man standing at the door of the widow's house, pointing his finger and demanding payment. The widow shields her two sons behind her protectively. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

A creditor came to her door. He was angry and demanded his money. "If you cannot pay," he said, "I will take your two sons as slaves!" The widow was terrified!

00 000 000 00 0000 000 000 000 0000 0000 "00000 0000000000" 00 "0000 00000 000 000 00000'0!" 00 0000 000

(Hade wahabi liqah nab ma'itso'a metse. Hiruq koynu genzebu hateta. "Kitikefi intezeykhilki" bela "nikilte awedatki barot geyre kiwesdom'ye!" Ita mebelet azya ferihet!)

Scene 3

[PICTURE: The widow running through a dusty village street with her two sons, heading toward the house of the prophet Elisha. She looks desperate but hopeful. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The widow remembered Elisha, the man of God! Her husband had been a faithful servant of the Lord. She ran with her sons to find the prophet Elisha and ask for help.

(Ita mebelet ni'Elsa'e seb Amlak zekeret! Seb'aya imun agelgali Egzi'abher neyru. Mis awedatta goya nineb'iy Elsa'e ridet'et kithatit kedet.)

Scene 4

[PICTURE: The widow kneeling before Elisha the prophet, crying and explaining her problem. Elisha sits listening with compassion. The two boys stand behind their mother. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The widow fell at Elisha's feet, crying. "My husband who served you has died!" she wept. "Now the creditor is coming to take my two boys as slaves! Please help us!"

ገገገ ገገገገ ገገ ገገገገ ገገገገ ገገገ ገገገገገ "ገገገገገ ገገገገገገ ገገገ!" ገገገገ ገገገገ "ገገ ገገገ ገገገ ገገገገ ገገገገገ ገገገ ገገገ ገገገገገ ገገገገ ገገ! ገገገ ገገገገገ!"

(Ita mebelet ab a'igar Elsa'e wediqa bekheyet. "Seb'ayey zigelgileka moytu!" bikhyat belet. "Hiji wahabi liqah nikilte awedatey barot geyru kiwesdom yimets'e alo! Bejakha hagizena!")

Scene 5

[PICTURE: Elisha leaning forward with a kind expression, asking the widow a question. He has one hand raised gently. The widow looks up at him with tears on her face. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Elisha looked at her with kindness and asked, "How can I help you? Tell me — what do you have in your house?" It seemed like a strange question, but God had a plan!

፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፻ "፳፻፻ ፳፻፻ ፳፻፻፻? ፳፻፻ — ፳፻ ፳፻፻ ፳፻፻፻ ፳፻፻?" ፳፻፻ ፳፻፻ ፳፻ ፳፻፻፻ ፳፻፻ ፳፻ ፳፻፻ ፳፻፻፻!

(Elsa'e bilewhat re'aya'mo "kemey geyre kihigizeki? Nigerini — ab betki intay aloki?" hateta. Zigerim hito yimesil nebere, gin Amlak medeb neyrwo!)

Scene 6

[PICTURE: The widow holding up a tiny jar of olive oil in her hands, looking at it sadly. The small jar looks almost empty. Elisha watches her with a thoughtful expression. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The widow looked down sadly. "I have nothing at all in my house," she said, "except one small jar of olive oil." It was just a tiny bit — barely enough to cook one meal!

ገገ ልገገገ ልገገገ ልገገ ልገገገገ "ገገ ልገገ ልገገ ልገገ'ገ ልገገገገ" ልገገ "ገገገ ልገገ ልገገ ልገገ ልገገገገ" ልገገ ልገገ ልገገ — ልገገገ ልገገ'ገገ ልገገገገ!

Scene 7

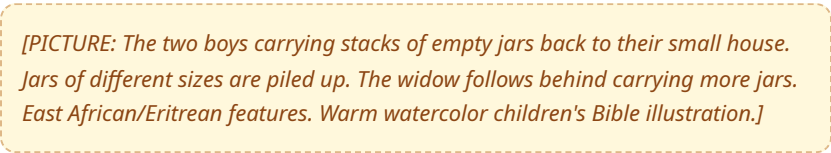

[PICTURE: Elisha standing up with authority, his hand raised as he gives instructions to the widow. His face shows confidence and faith. The widow and her sons listen intently. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Elisha's eyes lit up! "Go to all your neighbors," he told her, "and borrow as many empty jars as you can find. Don't ask for just a few — get many, many jars!"

፳፻፱ ፳፻፱፱ ፳፻፱! "፳፻ ፳፻፱ ፳፻፱፱፱ ፳፻" ፳፻ "፳፻፱፱፱፱ ፳፻፱ ፳፻፱ ፳፻፱፱፱ ፳፻፱ ፳፻፱ ፳፻፱፱፱፱ — ፳፻፱ ፳፻፱ ፳፻፱፱፱ ፳፻፱፱!"

Scene 9

The boys carried jar after jar back home. Big jars, small jars, tall jars, wide jars — they collected as many as they could! Soon their little house was filled with empty jars everywhere!

Scene 10

[PICTURE: The inside of the widow's small house completely filled with empty clay jars of various sizes lined up everywhere - on the floor, on tables, stacked against walls. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

There were so many empty jars! They filled every corner of the house — lined up against the walls, stacked on tables, crowded on the floor. The widow and her sons looked at all those empty jars and wondered what would happen next.

Scene 14

[PICTURE: The widow pouring oil steadily from her small jar while one son holds an empty jar and the other moves a full jar aside. Oil flows in a golden stream that never stops. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

"Bring me another jar!" the widow called to her sons. One boy held the jars steady while the other brought more empty ones. The oil kept pouring and pouring from that one little jar — it was a miracle!

Scene 15

[PICTURE: Multiple jars now filled with golden olive oil, gleaming in the light. The widow continues pouring with joy on her face. Her sons smile excitedly as they watch jar after jar fill up. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

One jar full! Two jars full! Three, four, five jars full! The oil just kept flowing and flowing. The widow laughed with joy as she watched jar after jar fill up to the top with beautiful golden oil!

Scene 16

[PICTURE: The two boys eagerly running back and forth, grabbing empty jars and lining up full ones. Their faces beam with excitement and wonder. Oil glistens in the filled jars. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The boys worked quickly! They grabbed empty jars and set them before their mother. As fast as they brought them, she filled them up! The room was filling with jar after jar of precious oil!

Scene 17

[PICTURE: The widow still pouring oil with a look of pure amazement and gratitude. Tears of joy stream down her face. Around her are dozens of jars already filled to the brim with golden oil. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Tears of joy ran down the widow's face as she kept pouring. God was providing for her family! Every jar she poured into filled right up to the very top. Not a single drop was wasted!

Scene 18

[PICTURE: The widow asking her son to bring another jar, but the boy shrugs and shows his empty hands - there are no more empty jars left. All the jars around them are full of oil. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

"Bring me another jar!" the widow said to her son. But the boy looked around and said, "There is not a jar left, Mother! They are all full!" Every single jar they had borrowed was now full of oil!

[illegible]

(*Kal'e itro amtsi'aley! Ita mebelet niweda beleto. Gin'ti qol'a ab zurya'u re'aye'mo

Scene 19

[PICTURE: The moment the oil stops flowing from the small jar as the last jar becomes full. The widow holds the small jar tilted, with the last drop falling. A look of awe on her face. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The moment the last jar was full, the oil stopped flowing. Not one drop more, not one drop less — exactly enough to fill every single jar! God's provision was perfect and complete!

Scene 20

[PICTURE: The widow running joyfully back to Elisha, her face beaming with happiness. She gestures excitedly with her hands as she tells him what happened. Her sons follow behind, jumping with joy. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The widow ran back to Elisha, her heart bursting with joy! "The oil filled every jar!" she cried. "It was a miracle! God filled them all!" Elisha smiled, knowing God had answered her need.

፳፻ ፳፻፻ ፳፻ ፳፻፻፻ ፳፻ ፳፻ ፳፻፻ ፳፻፻! "፳፻፻ ፳፻ ፳፻፻ ፳፻፻!"

Scene 22

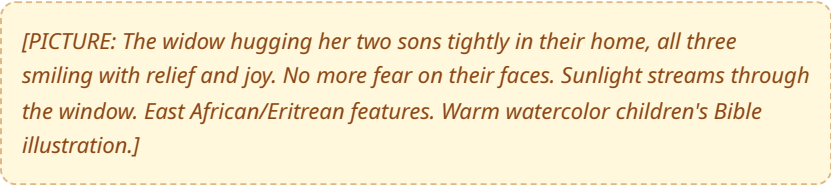

[PICTURE: The widow at a marketplace selling jars of oil to happy customers. People hand her money as she hands them jars. Her sons help carry the jars to buyers. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The widow sold the oil in the marketplace! People were happy to buy such fine oil. She earned enough money to pay every single debt her husband had left behind. Her family was free!

Scene 24

[PICTURE: The widow and her sons kneeling in prayer together in their home, hands raised in gratitude to God. A warm golden light fills the room. Their faces show deep thankfulness. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The widow and her sons knelt together and thanked God. He had taken their tiny jar of oil and multiplied it into something amazing! When they gave God what little they had, He made it more than enough!

Prayer / ማጽናት

Dear God, thank You for caring about all our problems — big and small. Help us to give You what little we have and trust that You will multiply it. Teach us to obey Your instructions even when they seem unusual. We know You are a God of miracles who provides for all our needs. Thank You for always being with us. Amen.
