□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □

□ Genesis 6–9

Noah's Ark □

Long ago, the world was filled with people who were selfish, mean, and forgot about God. But one man named Noah was kind, gentle, and always listened to God. One day, God spoke to Noah: "I will send a great flood to wash the earth clean. But I will save you and your family. Build a giant ark — a huge wooden boat — and bring two of every animal on board."

Noah trusted God completely. Even when his neighbours laughed at him, he kept building and building. When the ark was finished, animals came from everywhere — elephants, lions, giraffes, birds — two by two. Then the rain began to fall. It rained for 40 days and 40 nights! The whole earth was covered in water. But Noah, his family, and all the animals were safe inside the ark.

When the rain stopped and the waters dried, Noah sent out a dove. The dove returned with a fresh olive branch — a sign that dry land was near! When they stepped out of the ark, God placed a beautiful rainbow in the sky as His promise: "I will never flood the whole earth again." Noah built an altar and thanked God with all his heart.

David & Goliath 0

The people of Israel were at war with the Philistines. Every day, a giant warrior named Goliath came out and challenged anyone to fight him. He was over 9 feet tall, with heavy armor and a massive spear! All the soldiers of Israel were terrified — no one dared to face him.

Then came a young shepherd boy named David. He was not a soldier. He had no sword or armor — only a sling and five smooth stones. When David saw Goliath mocking God, he said bravely: "You come against me with a sword and spear, but I come in the name of the Lord!"

David placed a stone in his sling, spun it, and let it fly. The stone struck Goliath right on the forehead, and the mighty giant fell to the ground! The Israelites cheered. Little David had defeated the enormous Goliath — not with muscles, but with faith in God.

The Good Samaritan

One day, Jesus told a powerful story. A man was walking from Jerusalem to Jericho when robbers attacked him. They beat him, took everything, and left him hurt on the road.

First, a priest walked by — but he crossed to the other side and kept going. Then a Levite (a religious teacher) came by — he also looked away and passed. Finally, a Samaritan man came along. Now, Samaritans and Jews usually didn't like each other, but this man didn't care about that. He stopped, bandaged the man's wounds, put him on his donkey, and took him to an inn. He paid for his care and said, "Take care of him. Whatever more you spend, I'll repay."

Soon he had nothing. He was so hungry that he envied the pigs eating their food! He realized, "Even my father's servants eat better than this. I will go home and beg for forgiveness."

As the son walked home, his father saw him from far away. The father ran to meet him, hugged him tightly, and kissed him. "My son was lost, but now he is found!" the father cried with joy. He threw a great celebration! The father's love was always waiting — no matter what.

Daniel in the Lions' Den

Daniel was a wise and faithful man who served God in a foreign land. He was so good at his work that the king planned to make him the most important leader.

But other officials were jealous. They tricked the king into making a law: "Anyone who prays to any god except the king will be thrown into the lions' den!"

Daniel heard the law, but he didn't stop praying. Three times a day, he knelt by his window and prayed to God — just as he always did. The jealous men caught him and told the king. Sadly, the king had to follow his own law. Daniel was thrown into a pit full of hungry lions!

But God sent an angel who shut the lions' mouths! They didn't touch Daniel. The next morning, the king rushed to the den and cried out, "Daniel! Has your God saved you?" Daniel answered, "My God sent His angel and shut the lions' mouths!" The king rejoiced and honored God.

going the opposite direction.

God sent a terrible storm. The sailors were terrified! Jonah admitted it was his fault. "Throw me into the sea," he said, "and the storm will stop." They did — and the sea became calm. But God wasn't done with Jonah. He sent a huge fish to swallow Jonah! For three days and three nights, Jonah was inside the fish.

Inside the dark belly, Jonah prayed and asked God for forgiveness. God heard him! The fish spit Jonah out onto dry land. This time, Jonah obeyed — he went to Nineveh and delivered God's message. The people repented and God forgave them!

Ruth said the most beautiful words: "Where you go, I will go. Where you stay, I will stay. Your people shall be my people, and your God shall be my God." Together they returned to Bethlehem. Ruth worked hard in the fields, gathering leftover grain to feed them both.

A kind man named Boaz noticed Ruth's hard work and faithfulness. He protected her and provided for her. Eventually, Boaz and Ruth married! God blessed them — and Ruth became the great-grandmother of King David, and an ancestor of Jesus Himself! Faithful love is always rewarded.

□ Moral Lesson | 道德教训

Be brave and speak up for what is right, even when it's scary.

God places us where we are for a reason. Like Esther, we should use our position to help others. Courage + faith can save many lives!

Moral Lesson | 道德教训*Trust God even when you don't understand His plan.

Abraham didn't know how things would work out, but he trusted God completely. When we obey in faith, God always provides. He will never ask for more than He will give back.

Genesis 11:1-9

The Tower of Babel

After the great flood, everyone in the world spoke one language. The people settled in a plain and said, "Let us build a city with a tower that reaches to the heavens! We will make a name for ourselves!" They were full of pride — they wanted to be as great as God.

God saw their pride and their tower. He said, "They are one people with one language, and nothing will stop them from doing whatever they plan." So God confused their language! Suddenly, no one could understand each other. One person said "pass the brick" but it sounded like nonsense to others!

The building stopped. People who spoke the same new language gathered together and spread out across the earth — just as God had originally planned. The place was called Babel, which sounds like "confused." God's purpose will always prevail over human pride.

Pride leads to downfall — stay humble before God.

The people wanted glory for themselves instead of honoring God. When we become too proud and try to do everything by our own power, things fall apart. True greatness comes from humility.

Elijah & Fire from Heaven □

Israel had turned away from God and was worshipping the false god Baal. The prophet Elijah challenged 450 prophets of Baal to a contest on Mount Carmel: "Build an altar and call on your god. I will call on the LORD. The God who answers by fire — He is the true God!"

The prophets of Baal danced, screamed, and begged all day — but nothing happened. No fire. No answer. Then it was Elijah's turn. He rebuilt God's altar, laid the sacrifice, and then did something astonishing: he poured water all over the altar — three times! Everything was soaking wet!

Then Elijah prayed simply: "LORD, let it be known today that You are God!"

Immediately, FIRE fell from heaven! It consumed the sacrifice, the wood, the

There is only one true God — and He answers those who call on Him.

Elijah stood alone against hundreds but didn't waver. Sometimes standing for truth means standing alone. God's power is real and He shows up when we need Him!

Jesus Calms the Storm ☐

After a long day of teaching, Jesus and His disciples got into a boat to cross the Sea of Galilee. Jesus was so tired that He fell asleep on a cushion. Suddenly, a furious storm hit! Waves crashed over the boat. Wind howled. Water poured in. The disciples were terrified!

They shook Jesus awake: "Teacher! Don't you care that we are drowning?!" Jesus stood up calmly. He looked at the raging wind and crashing waves and said just three words: "Peace! Be still!"

Instantly — the wind stopped. The waves calmed. Everything became perfectly still and quiet. The disciples stared at each other in awe: "Who is this? Even the wind and the sea obey Him!" Then Jesus asked them gently, "Why were you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?"
