Story: The Rabbit and the Tortoise

The Story in English:

Once upon a time, in a beautiful forest, there was a very fast rabbit who was proud of himself.

The rabbit said to the tortoise: 'I am faster than you! Let's race!'

The tortoise said calmly: 'Okay, let's race.'

The race started! The rabbit ran very fast then said: 'The tortoise is so slow!'

The rabbit fell asleep under a tree. But the tortoise never stopped.

The tortoise walked slowly... slowly... slowly... until she reached the finish line!

The rabbit woke up and ran fast but found the tortoise had won!

The rabbit said: 'I learned an important lesson today!'

MORAL: Perseverance and hard work overcome pride and laziness. Never underestimate others!

Story: The Boy Who Cried Wolf

The Story in English:

There was a boy who shepherded sheep on the hill every day.

The boy got bored and shouted: 'Wolf! Wolf! Help me!'

The villagers ran to help him, but they found no wolf!

The boy laughed and said: 'I tricked you!'

The next day, he lied again: 'Wolf! Wolf!'

The villagers came again and found nothing. They were very angry.

On the third day, a REAL wolf came! The boy shouted: 'Wolf! Wolf!'

But no one came to help him. No one believed him.

The boy learned that lying makes people lose trust in you.

MORAL: Lying makes people lose trust in you. Always tell the truth so others believe you when you need them.
