Scene 17

[PICTURE: Priests blowing a long sustained trumpet blast, cheeks puffed, the sound waves visible in the air, dramatic moment. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The priests blew a long, powerful blast on their trumpets. The sound filled the air like thunder. Every man, woman, and child took a deep breath.

Scene 18

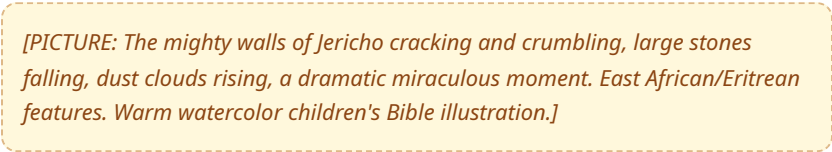

[PICTURE: All the Israelites shouting together with mouths wide open, hands raised, incredible energy and joy on their faces. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Then all the people shouted with a great shout! The noise was so loud it shook the ground. Men, women, and children all cried out together with one mighty voice!

ጌጌ ጌጌ ጌጌጌ ጌጌጌ ጌጌጌ ጌጌጌ! ጌጌጌ ጌጌጌጌ ጌጌጌ ጌጌ ጌጌጌጌ ጌጌጌ ጌጌጌጌጌጌጌ

Scene 21

[PICTURE: Rahab's house on the wall with a red cord hanging from the window, two Israelite spies approaching to rescue her and her family. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Joshua remembered Rahab, a woman who had helped the Israelite spies. She had hidden them and believed in God. "Bring Rahab and her family to safety!" Joshua commanded.

Scene 22

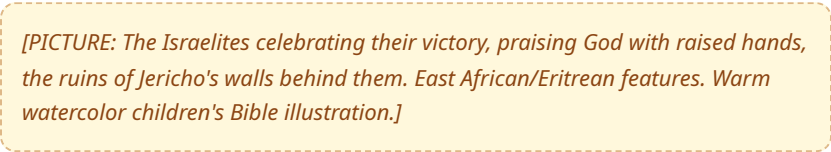

[PICTURE: Rahab and her family being led safely out of the city by Israelite men, relief and gratitude on their faces. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Rahab and her whole family were saved because she had faith in God. She trusted the Lord and showed kindness to His people. God kept her safe.
