Scene 1

[PICTURE: A beautiful woman named Hannah kneeling in prayer at the temple entrance, tears streaming down her face, her hands raised toward heaven. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

There was a woman named Hannah who loved God very much. She wanted a baby more than anything in the world, but she had no children.

Scene 4

[PICTURE: Eli the old priest watching Hannah pray from his seat near the temple door, looking concerned at first then understanding. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Eli the priest saw Hannah praying. At first he did not understand, but then he said, "Go in peace. May God give you what you asked for."

Scene 5

[PICTURE: Hannah holding a newborn baby boy wrapped in soft cloth, her face full of joy and gratitude, warm light filling the room. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

God answered Hannah's prayer! She had a beautiful baby boy. She named him Samuel, which means "God heard me." Hannah was so happy!
