Scene 1

[PICTURE: Nehemiah serving wine to the Persian king in a grand palace with golden pillars and silk curtains. Nehemiah wears servant robes and carries a golden cup. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

A long time ago, there lived a man named Nehemiah. He worked as the cupbearer to the great Persian king. His job was to taste the king's wine and serve him.

Scene 2

[PICTURE: A traveler arriving at Nehemiah's home, looking dusty and tired from a long journey. He carries a small bag and has a worried expression. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

One day, Nehemiah's brother and some friends came from far-away Jerusalem. They brought very sad news about their beloved city.

Scene 3

[PICTURE: The travelers telling Nehemiah about Jerusalem. Their faces show sorrow as they describe the broken walls. Nehemiah listens with growing concern. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

"The walls of Jerusalem are broken down!" they said. "The gates have been burned with fire. The people there are in great trouble and shame."

"ገገገገ ገገገገገገ ገገገ!" ገገገ "ገገገገ ገገገ ገገገገገገ ገገገ ገገገ ገገገ ገገ ገገ

(Qitsri Iyerusalem ferisu! belu. Degetat bihawit teqatsilom. Ab'u zele'u hizbi ab abi tsegem'n hijret'n ale'u.)

Scene 6

[PICTURE: Nehemiah serving wine to the king, but his face is sad. The king sits on a magnificent throne, looking at Nehemiah with concern. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

One day, as Nehemiah served wine to King Artaxerxes, the king noticed something different. "Why does your face look so sad?" the king asked. "You are not sick, so this must be sadness of the heart."

፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻ ፳፻፳ ፳፻፳ ፳፻፳ ፳፻፳፻፳፻ "፳፻፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳ ፳፻፳ ፳፻፳፻" ፳፻፳ ፳፻፳፻ "፳፻፳ ፳፻፳፻፳፻፳፻ ፳፻ ፳፻ ፳፻ ፳፻፳፻ ፳፻፳፻"

Scene 8

[PICTURE: The king leaning forward with interest, asking Nehemiah what he wants. The queen sits beside the king. Nehemiah looks hopeful. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

"What do you want me to do?" the king asked kindly. Nehemiah's heart leaped with hope! He asked the king for permission to go to Jerusalem and rebuild the walls.

"ፍጹሙ ምንጽጽህ ምን?" ሰጢሱ ሰጢ ሰጢ ሰጢ ሰጢ ሰጢ! ሰጢ ሰጢ ሰጢ ሰጢ ሰጢ ሰጢ ሰጢ ሰጢ ሰጢ

Scene 9

[PICTURE: The king handing Nehemiah official letters and scrolls with royal seals. Soldiers and supplies are being prepared in the background. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

God answered Nehemiah's prayer! The king said yes! He gave Nehemiah letters for safe travel, timber for building, and soldiers to protect him on the long journey.

Scene 10

[PICTURE: Nehemiah traveling on horseback with a small group of companions through desert landscape. They carry supplies and look determined. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Nehemiah traveled the long, dusty road from Persia to Jerusalem. It took many days, but his heart was full of hope because God was with him.

Scene 11

[PICTURE: Nehemiah riding a donkey at night under the moon, quietly inspecting the broken, crumbling walls of Jerusalem. Rubble and stones are scattered everywhere. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

When Nehemiah arrived in Jerusalem, he waited three days. Then, at night, he secretly rode out to inspect the broken walls. He saw how badly damaged they were.

Scene 12

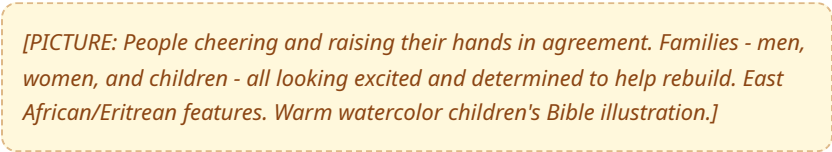

[PICTURE: Nehemiah standing before a crowd of Jewish people in Jerusalem, arms raised, speaking passionately. The broken walls are visible behind them. People look up with hope. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Nehemiah gathered all the people together. "Come!" he said boldly. "Let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem! God's hand is upon us, and the king has given us permission!"

ጸገገገ ጸገገገ ጸገገ ጸገገገ "ጸገገ!" ጸገገገገ ጸገገ "ጸገገገ ጸገገገገገ ጸገገገገ! ጸገገ ጸገገገ ጸገ ጸገገገ ጸገገ ጸገገ'ጸገ ጸገገ ጸገገ!"

Scene 14

[PICTURE: Different groups of people working on different sections of the wall. Some carry stones, others mix mortar, children bring water. A busy, joyful construction scene. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Nehemiah organized the people wisely. Each family was given a section of the wall to rebuild. Everyone worked on the part closest to their own home. Together they were strong!

Scene 15

[PICTURE: Two angry men - Sanballat and Tobiah - standing on a hill, pointing and laughing at the workers below. They have mean expressions and mocking gestures. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

But not everyone was happy. Enemies named Sanballat and Tobiah were very angry! They mocked the builders. "What are these feeble people doing?" they laughed. "Even a fox could knock down their wall!"

Scene 16

[PICTURE: Nehemiah standing firm with a calm, determined expression, encouraging worried workers. He points upward toward heaven while addressing the crowd. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

But Nehemiah was not afraid of their mean words. He told the people: "Do not be afraid of them! Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome. He will fight for us!"

ገገ ገገገገ ገገ ገገገ ገገገገገ ገገገገገገ ገገገ ገገገ "ገገገገገገገገ! ገገ ገገገ

Scene 17

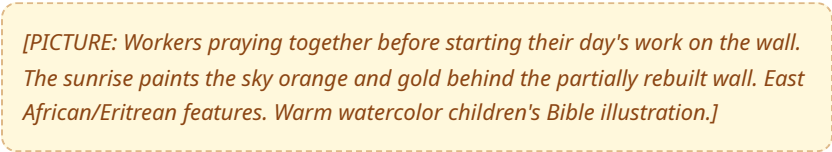

[PICTURE: Workers building the wall with a trowel in one hand and a sword or spear in the other hand. They look vigilant but keep working. Some stand guard while others lay stones. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The enemies threatened to attack! So Nehemiah made a wise plan. Half the workers built the wall while the other half stood guard with spears and shields. Those building held a tool in one hand and a weapon in the other!

፳፻፱ ሰዓ ፳፻፱ ሰዓ፻፱! ፳፻ ሰዓ፻፱ ፳፻፱ ፳፻ ፳፻፱፱ ፳፻ ፳፻፱፱፱፱

Scene 18

Every day, the workers prayed before they started building. They asked God for strength and protection. Prayer gave them courage to keep going even when the work was hard.

Scene 20

[PICTURE: Nehemiah standing tall and firm, shaking his head "no" to messengers who try to lure him away from the wall. He holds building tools firmly. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

When the enemies asked Nehemiah to come meet them, he knew it was a trap! He sent back a message: "I am doing a great work and I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it?"

ገገገገ ገገገገገ ገገገገገ ገገ ገገገ ገገገ ገገገ ገገገ! ገገገገገ ገገገ ገገገገ "ገገ ገገገ ገገገ ገገገገገገ ገገገገገገ ገገገገ ገገገ ገገ ገገገ?"

Scene 22

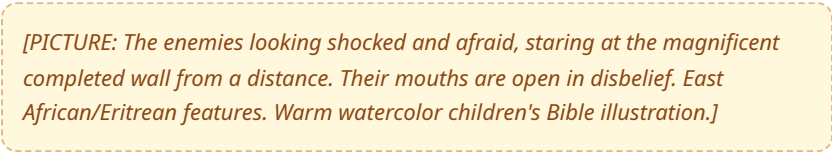

[PICTURE: Workers placing the very last stones on top of the completed wall. Some are sealing the gates with new wooden doors. Joy and exhaustion show on their faces. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

After just 52 days, the wall was finished! Every stone was in place. Every gate had new doors. What seemed impossible had been done! It was a miracle from God!

Scene 23

When the enemies saw the finished wall, they were shocked and afraid! They knew that only God could have helped the people finish so quickly. God had made His people victorious!

Moral of the Story / መላእክት ስሜት

When God gives us a job to do, we should never give up, even when others try to stop us. Teamwork and prayer can accomplish the impossible!

Discussion Questions / ብላጽ ጥያቄ

1. Why was Nehemiah so sad when he heard about Jerusalem's walls?
2. What did Nehemiah do before he asked the king for help?
3. How did the enemies try to stop the building?
4. Why did the workers hold tools in one hand and weapons in the other?
5. What can we learn from Nehemiah about never giving up?
