[PICTURE: A warm watercolor children's Bible illustration of rolling green hills with sheep grazing peacefully. A young East African/Eritrean boy named David, with warm brown skin and short curly hair, sits on a rock playing a small harp. He wears a simple shepherd's tunic. A leather sling hangs from his belt. Golden afternoon sunlight bathes the hillside. Butterflies dance around wildflowers.]

ENGLISH:

A long time ago, there lived a young shepherd boy named David. He was the youngest of eight brothers! Every day, David watched over his father's sheep on the green hillsides. He loved to sing songs to God while he worked.

ENGLISH:

Even though David was young and small, he was very brave! One time a lion came to steal his sheep, and David fought it away. Another time a bear came, and David was not afraid. God gave David courage and strength to protect his sheep.

TIGRINYA:

[PICTURE: A watercolor children's Bible illustration showing two armies facing each other across a valley. On one side, the Israelite soldiers look small and scared, wearing simple armor. On the other side, the Philistine army looks fierce with colorful shields and spears. Between them is a wide green valley with a stream. Tents of both camps visible in the background. East African/Eritrean features on all people.]

ENGLISH:

In those days, a great war was happening. The army of Israel stood on one hill, and the mean Philistine army stood on another hill. Between them was a wide valley. The soldiers of Israel were very afraid because of one giant enemy.

TIGRINYA:

Ab'te mzEtat, Abi kunat yrkeb neyru. Serawit Israel Ab Hade Kenya deyw, Hfur serawit Flistwyan Ab kalAy Kenya deywu. Ab maEkelom wesiE sQIi neyru. Wttahdr Israel bsbe Hade Abi tsIaI bhwti frhywm.

(Pronunciation: kunat = war, serawit = army, frhywm = they were afraid)

[PICTURE: A watercolor children's Bible illustration of the giant Goliath standing in the valley, towering over everything. He is enormously tall with dark bronze armor, a huge shield, and a massive spear. His face is angry and scary. He shouts with his mouth wide open. The Israelite soldiers in the background look tiny compared to him. Dark storm clouds gather behind Goliath. East African/Eritrean features.]

ENGLISH:

The giant's name was Goliath! He was taller than any man anyone had ever seen — almost ten feet tall! He wore heavy bronze armor and carried a spear as big as a tree. Every morning and evening, Goliath shouted at the Israelites.

TIGRINYA:

StmE Abi sebAy Golyat neyru! Kab zmKulu sebAy zrAdyu bHat nebelbe — Aserte egiR bHat! KbuD nHasi zrbi ylebsn Hanti tKomA kmsla gnd zlewAH yshkm neyru. Kulu ngHo n mset, Golyat nIsrael ytsrH neyru.

(Pronunciation: Golyat = Goliath, Abi = giant, nHasi = bronze, tKomA = spear)

[PICTURE: A watercolor children's Bible illustration close-up of Goliath's angry face as he shouts his challenge. His voice echoes across the valley shown by wavy lines. Israelite soldiers in the background drop their weapons and run away in terror. Some hide behind rocks. King Saul stands in his tent looking worried, hand on his forehead. The scene conveys fear and hopelessness. East African/Eritrean features.]

ENGLISH:

"Send someone to fight me!" Goliath shouted every day. "If your man wins, we will be your servants. But if I win, you will be our servants!" For forty days, no one in Israel was brave enough to fight the giant. Everyone was too scared!

TIGRINYA:

[PICTURE: A watercolor children's Bible illustration of young David arriving at the army camp carrying bread and cheese in a basket for his older brothers. He is small among the tall soldiers. His eyes go wide as he hears Goliath's booming voice echo across the valley. Soldiers around him whisper fearfully to each other. David's brothers look embarrassed to see their little brother. East African/Eritrean features.]

ENGLISH:

One day, David's father sent him to bring food to his big brothers who were soldiers. When David arrived at the camp, he heard Goliath's loud, scary voice booming across the valley. David saw all the soldiers running away in fear!

TIGRINYA:

Hade meAlti, Ab'ye Dawit meghbi nAEwdu AHwatu wttHdr znebeRu klEko. Dawit Ab mEdri mskmetsAe, nHfreti Abi dHmtsi Golyat Ab sQIIi kznQ semAe. Dawit kulu wttHdr bfrhit khmeku reAye!

ENGLISH:

David was not afraid! Instead, he felt angry that Goliath was saying bad things about God. "Who is this giant who dares to speak against the living God?" David asked bravely. "Someone should fight him!" No one else would go.

TIGRINYA:

Dawit Ayfrihen! Ab kltsidu, bsbe Golyat nAmlak Hfur neger kmzblu Hatire. "Mntay eyu 'zi Abi sebAy nHyaw Amlak ktzbAer zdsKr?" Dawit btsebAet Hatete. "Hade sebAy kQAtlo Alwo!" Kaleet kKeyd zelenebren.

[PICTURE: A watercolor children's Bible illustration of King Saul sitting on a large chair in his royal tent, looking down at small David with surprise. Saul wears a crown and heavy armor. David looks tiny next to the tall king. Saul's advisors stand around shaking their heads in disbelief. A shaft of light falls on David from the tent opening. East African/Eritrean features on all characters.]

ENGLISH:

Word reached King Saul that a boy wanted to fight Goliath! They brought David to the king. "You cannot fight this giant," said King Saul. "You are just a boy, and he has been a warrior his whole life!" But David was not worried.

TIGRINYA:

Hade wedu nGolyat kQAtl kmdly ztbl Hbri nNguS Saul betstHe! Dawit nab nGuS Amtsi'wu. "NzA Abi sebAy kttQAtel AytkhlIn," bele Saul. "nsKa gerezmatch ukha, nsu gn mluE Hywityu tetAwari eyu!" Gn Dawit Aytsqeqen.

[PICTURE: A watercolor children's Bible illustration of David telling King Saul about fighting the lion and bear. David acts out the scene with animated gestures — his arms spread wide showing the size of the animals. Saul listens with growing interest, leaning forward. Behind David, a faint watercolor image of a lion and bear appear like memory clouds. East African/Eritrean features.]

ENGLISH:

David said to King Saul, "I have fought a lion and a bear to protect my sheep! God saved me from their claws. The same God will save me from this giant too!" King Saul looked at David's brave eyes and began to believe him.

TIGRINYA:

Dawit nNguS Saul "Anbsa n db'A nbegateye kHlw tQAtileyen! Amlak kab tsfernayom Adihinni. ItsI Amlak dk'A kab'zi Abi sebAy'wn kAdHneni eyu!" bele. Saul ntsebAE Aynet Dawit rAiyu kmAmen jemere.

(Pronunciation: Anbsa = lion, db'A = bear, Adihinni = saved me)

[PICTURE: A watercolor children's Bible illustration showing King Saul trying to put his own heavy armor on little David. The helmet falls over David's eyes, the breastplate hangs to his knees, and the sword drags on the ground. David looks uncomfortable and funny in the oversized armor. Saul and his servants try not to smile. The scene is lighthearted and humorous. East African/Eritrean features.]

ENGLISH:

King Saul gave David his own armor to wear. But the heavy helmet fell over David's eyes! The big sword dragged on the ground! "I cannot wear these," David said. "I am not used to them." So David took off all the heavy armor.

TIGRINYA:

[PICTURE: A watercolor children's Bible illustration of David kneeling beside a clear stream, carefully choosing five smooth stones from the water. He holds each one up to examine it in the sunlight. His leather sling bag is open beside him. The water sparkles crystal clear. Each stone is perfectly round and smooth. David's face is calm and focused, showing complete trust in God. East African/Eritrean features.]

ENGLISH:

Instead, David picked up his shepherd's staff and walked to the stream. He bent down and carefully chose five smooth stones from the water. He put them in his shepherd's bag and held his sling in his hand. David was ready!

TIGRINYA:

David looks tiny but determined. Behind David, the entire Israelite army watches from the hilltop. The valley is wide and green. Dramatic clouds fill the sky. Golden light surrounds David like divine protection. East African/Eritrean features.]

ENGLISH:

David walked bravely into the valley to face the giant. He looked so small walking toward the huge warrior! All the soldiers of Israel watched from the hilltop, holding their breath. David's heart was not afraid because he knew God was with him.

TIGRINYA:

He laughs cruelly, pointing at David's staff and sling. His shield bearer stands beside him looking confused. David stands firm and unafraid, chin raised. The contrast in size is dramatic and clear. East African/Eritrean features.]

ENGLISH:

When Goliath saw David, he laughed! "Am I a dog, that you come at me with sticks?" Goliath mocked. "You are just a little boy! I will feed you to the birds!" Goliath thought David was a joke. But Goliath did not know about David's God.

TIGRINYA:

[PICTURE: A watercolor children's Bible illustration of David shouting back at Goliath with one arm raised toward heaven. His face shows fierce faith and holy boldness. Words seem to echo from his mouth across the valley. Behind David, a faint golden glow represents God's presence. Goliath's expression changes from mocking to slightly confused. The sky shows dramatic clouds parting. East African/Eritrean features.]

ENGLISH:

David shouted back with great courage: "You come with a sword and spear, but I come in the name of the Lord God! Today God will give me victory over you! Then everyone will know that God saves — not by sword or spear, but by His mighty power!"

TIGRINYA:

(Pronunciation: seif = sword, tKomA = spear, zfer = victory, HyAlu = His power)

ENGLISH:

David ran toward the giant at full speed! He reached into his bag, pulled out a smooth stone, and placed it in his sling. He swung the sling around and around above his head — faster and faster! Then, with all his might, David let the stone fly!

TIGRINYA:

His massive body begins to fall backward like a great tree. His weapons slip from his hands. Dust clouds rise around him. David stands with his now-empty sling, watching God's power at work. East African/Eritrean features.]

ENGLISH:

The stone flew straight and true — it hit Goliath right in the forehead! THUD! The mighty giant's eyes went wide. He stumbled backward, and then — CRASH! — the giant fell face-first to the ground! One small stone and one big God brought down the mightiest warrior!

David's small figure contrasts dramatically with the huge fallen warrior. David raises one hand toward heaven in praise to God. Golden sunlight breaks through the dramatic clouds above. The whole scene shows that God's power won this battle. East African/Eritrean features.]

ENGLISH:

David stood over the fallen giant. He did not win because he was big or strong — he won because God was with him! David raised his hand to heaven and praised God. The impossible had become possible through faith in the Lord!

Soldiers throw their helmets in the air, hug each other, wave their arms, and shout with joy. Some soldiers lift David onto their shoulders. The Philistine army runs away in the far background. Bright sunshine fills the scene with golden celebration light. East African/Eritrean features on all people.]

ENGLISH:

When the Philistines saw their champion had fallen, they ran away in fear! The whole army of Israel cheered and shouted with joy! They ran after the enemy and won a great victory. David — the young shepherd boy — had saved his whole nation because he trusted God!

TIGRINYA:

David walks through crowds of cheering people — women play tambourines, children throw flowers, men clap and shout. David smiles humbly, pointing upward to give credit to God. The celebration fills a city street with colorful banners and joyful faces. East African/Eritrean features on all people.]

ENGLISH:

The people celebrated David as a hero! Women sang and danced, children threw flowers, and everyone praised God. But David always remembered that it was God who gave him the victory. David kept his heart humble and thankful to the Lord.

A shepherd's staff leans against the wall behind him. Through the palace window, green hills with sheep are visible — his past. His face is wise and kind. A Bible/scroll is open on his lap. East African/Eritrean features.]

ENGLISH:

David grew up to become the greatest king Israel ever had! He wrote beautiful songs called Psalms that we still sing today. God used the small shepherd boy for amazing things. From shepherd to giant-slayer to king — God's plan for David was wonderful!

TIGRINYA:

The child looks small compared to the big board, just like David looked small compared to Goliath. But the child has a determined smile. Other children watch encouragingly. Golden light surrounds the brave child.]

ENGLISH:

We all face "giants" in our lives — things that seem too big or too scary for us. Maybe it is a hard test at school, a bully, moving to a new place, or something that makes you worried. But remember: with God, nothing is impossible!

TIGRINYA:

The brave child stands between them like David stood before Goliath. A golden shield of light protects the brave child. Other children watch with admiration. The scene shows courage in everyday life.]

ENGLISH:

Like David, you can be brave even when you feel small! God does not look at how big or tall you are. God looks at your heart. When your heart is full of faith and love for God, you can do amazing things — no matter how young or small you are!

TIGRINYA:

Above the child, a glowing shield appears — representing God's protection. Outside the window, dark clouds with scary shapes represent fears and worries. But inside the room, warm golden light keeps the child safe. A small Bible sits on the nightstand. Stars peek through clouds.]

ENGLISH:

When you feel afraid of something big, talk to God about it! David prayed before he fought Goliath. You can pray too. Tell God about your fears and worries. He will give you courage and strength, just like He gave David. God always hears you!

TIGRINYA:

They sit under a large tree with dappled sunlight coming through leaves. Some children have eyes closed, some look up to heaven with smiling faces. A dove sits on a branch above them. Flowers bloom around them in bright colors.]

ENGLISH:

Let us pray together! Dear God, thank You for the story of David. Thank You that You do not need us to be big or strong — You just need us to trust You. Help us to be brave when we face hard things. Remind us that You are always bigger than any giant. We love You! Amen.

The child wears modern clothes and has a joyful, brave smile. A golden glow and gentle watercolor stars surround the child. The background shifts from dark (representing giants/fears) to bright gold (representing God's power).]

ENGLISH:

Always remember: YOU can do great things with God! You do not need to be the biggest, the strongest, or the oldest. You just need to trust God with all your heart. Like David, your faith makes you mighty! God is always on your side. Never forget — with God, all things are possible!

ENGLISH: God does not need us to be big, strong, or powerful. He needs us to have faith and trust in Him. When we face challenges that seem impossible, God gives us the courage and strength to overcome them. Like David, we can do amazing things when we put our trust in God rather than in our own abilities.
