[PICTURE: A warm watercolor children's Bible illustration of Daniel as a wise, dignified man with East African/Eritrean features — warm brown skin, short gray-black hair, and kind wise eyes. He stands in the beautiful palace of Babylon wearing fine robes of blue and gold. Through the window, the magnificent hanging gardens and city are visible. Daniel holds a scroll and looks trustworthy and intelligent. Golden light fills the room.]

ENGLISH:

In the great kingdom of Babylon, there lived a man named Daniel who loved God with all his heart. Daniel was very wise and honest. The king trusted Daniel so much that he made him one of the most important leaders in the whole kingdom!

Warm golden light streams through the window as Daniel prays with his hands raised and eyes closed. He prays three times a day — shown by sun positions (morning, noon, evening) in small circular vignettes. East African/Eritrean features.]*

ENGLISH:

Every single day — morning, noon, and evening — Daniel knelt by his open window and prayed to God. He thanked God, asked for help, and talked to God like a best friend. Daniel never missed his prayer time, no matter how busy he was. Prayer was the most important part of his day.

They point toward where Daniel works. Their faces show jealousy and scheming. Dark shadows surround them while in the distance through a doorway, Daniel works honestly in bright light. The contrast between dark scheming and bright honesty is clear. East African/Eritrean features.]*

ENGLISH:

But some of the other leaders were very jealous of Daniel! They did not like that the king loved Daniel so much. "We must find a way to get Daniel in trouble!" they whispered. But Daniel was so honest, they could find nothing wrong with him. He never cheated or lied.

One points toward Daniel's open window where he prays. They smile wickedly at each other, having found their plan. A scroll and quill are on the table — they will write a new law. The scene feels sneaky and wrong. Dark purples and greens color their corner. East African/Eritrean features.]*

ENGLISH:

Then the jealous men had a sneaky plan! "Daniel prays to his God three times every day," they said. "Let us make a new law that says no one can pray to anyone except the king for thirty days! Anyone who breaks this law will be thrown into the lions' den!"

He signs the document with a golden seal. The officials smile wickedly behind his back. The throne room is grand with tall columns and rich tapestries. Gold and purple colors dominate. East African/Eritrean features on all characters.]*

ENGLISH:

The sneaky men brought the law to King Darius. "O great king," they said sweetly, "make this law that everyone must pray only to you for thirty days!" The king felt proud and signed the law without thinking. He did not know it was a trick to hurt Daniel!

He looks toward his prayer window with quiet determination. The scene shows Daniel's inner strength and faith. Warm light from the window illuminates his resolved expression. His Bible scroll sits nearby. East African/Eritrean features.]*

ENGLISH:

When Daniel heard about the new law, he was not afraid! He knew the law said he could not pray to God. But Daniel loved God too much to stop talking to Him. Daniel decided: "I will keep praying to my God, no matter what happens to me. I will not stop!"

The contrast between Daniel's peace and their wickedness is powerful. East African/Eritrean features.]*

ENGLISH:

Just as he always did, Daniel went to his room, opened his window, and knelt down to pray. He prayed three times that day, thanking God and asking for His help. But the jealous men were watching! They saw Daniel praying and rubbed their hands together with evil joy.

King Darius sits on his throne, and as he hears about Daniel, his face changes from confusion to deep sadness and worry. He puts his hand over his heart in distress. The throne room feels heavy with tension. East African/Eritrean features on all characters.]*

ENGLISH:

The jealous men ran to King Darius. "O king! Daniel has broken your law! He prays to his God three times a day!" When the king heard this, his heart sank. He loved Daniel! He realized the trick — but the law could not be changed, not even by the king.

The sun moves across the sky through windows showing time passing. His face shows deep worry and love for Daniel. The jealous officials hover at the door reminding him of the law. East African/Eritrean features.]*

ENGLISH:

All day long, King Darius tried to find a way to save Daniel. He searched every law book. He asked every wise man. But there was no way to undo the law. As the sun set, the king had to give the terrible order. His heart was breaking for his friend Daniel.

Daniel's peace contrasts with everyone else's fear. East African/Eritrean features.]*

ENGLISH:

Daniel was taken to the lions' den. But even now, Daniel was not afraid! He walked with his head high and his heart at peace. King Darius called out to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve so faithfully, save you!" Then Daniel was lowered into the dark den.

Soldiers help push the stone. The jealous officials watch with satisfaction. King Darius looks miserable, turning away as if he cannot bear to watch. Stars begin to appear in the darkening sky. East African/Eritrean features.]*

ENGLISH:

A huge stone was rolled over the opening of the den. The king sealed it with his royal ring so no one could open it. Then the king went back to his palace. He was so worried about Daniel that he could not eat dinner, could not listen to music, and could not sleep all night!

A magnificent glowing angel stands behind Daniel with wings spread wide, hands placed on the lions' mouths. Divine golden light fills the dark den. Daniel prays calmly with a smile. East African/Eritrean features on Daniel.]*

ENGLISH:

Inside the den, hungry lions surrounded Daniel! Their eyes glowed in the dark. But God sent His angel to shut the lions' mouths! The lions could not hurt Daniel. Instead, they lay down peacefully beside him like gentle kittens. Daniel spent the whole night safe and unharmed, praising God!

Soldiers try to keep up with the running king. Dew glistens on the stone covering the den. East African/Eritrean features.]*

ENGLISH:

At the very first light of morning, King Darius jumped up and ran to the lions' den! He could not wait another moment. His heart was pounding. Had God really saved Daniel? The king called out with a shaking voice, "Daniel! Daniel! Did your God save you from the lions?"

The contrast between the dark den and bright sky above is beautiful. East African/Eritrean features.]*

ENGLISH:

Then Daniel's strong, calm voice called up from the den: "O king, live forever! My God sent His angel and shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me at all! God knew I was innocent. I have done nothing wrong." The king's heart leaped with joy!

Lions look up peacefully from below. East African/Eritrean features on all people.]*

ENGLISH:

The king ordered Daniel to be lifted out of the den right away! When Daniel came out, everyone gasped — there was not a single scratch on him! Not one bite, not one tear in his clothes. God had completely protected Daniel. The king hugged Daniel with tears of joy streaming down his face.

The scene shows that Daniel's faithfulness was rewarded. Everything is bright and joyful. East African/Eritrean features.]*

ENGLISH:

Daniel continued to pray three times every day, just as he always had! Nothing could ever stop Daniel from talking to his God. Daniel lived a long and blessed life, always faithful, always praying, always trusting God. And God always took care of Daniel.

Golden afternoon light creates a warm, storytelling atmosphere. East African/Eritrean features on all people.]*

ENGLISH:

Daniel became one of the most famous men of faith in all of history! His story teaches us that when we stay faithful to God, He will always protect us and take care of us. God honored Daniel because Daniel honored God first — every single day of his life.

A stuffed lion toy sits on the bed — a sweet connection to the story.]*

ENGLISH:

Just like Daniel, you can talk to God every day! Prayer is simply talking to God — thanking Him, telling Him how you feel, asking for help, or just saying "I love You." God always hears you when you pray. You do not need fancy words — just talk from your heart!

The brave child smiles peacefully despite the teasing. The scene shows courage in faith.]*

ENGLISH:

Sometimes people might not understand why you pray or why you love God. They might even tease you! But like Daniel, you can stay faithful and brave. Never be ashamed of loving God. When you choose God, He will always be proud of you and protect you!

ENGLISH:

We all face "lions" in our lives — things that scare us. Maybe it is the dark, a bully, a test, or being alone. But just like God shut the mouths of the real lions for Daniel, God can help you face your fears too! When you pray, God gives you His peace and protection.

Like Daniel chose God over the king's law, this child chooses right over wrong.]*

ENGLISH:

Daniel chose to obey God even when it meant danger. He did the right thing even when it was very hard. You can be like Daniel! When friends ask you to do wrong things, be brave and choose God's way. It is always right to do what is right — even when it is not easy!

The scene shows the beauty of faithful family prayer.]*

ENGLISH:

Make prayer a special part of every day! Just like Daniel prayed morning, noon, and night, you can talk to God anytime. Before meals, before bed, when you wake up, or when you feel scared. God is always listening and He loves hearing from you!

The Moral

tmhrti

ENGLISH: When we stay faithful to God, He will always protect us and be with us — even in the scariest situations. Like Daniel, we should never stop praying and never be afraid to do what is right. God rewards faithfulness and He is more powerful than any "lion" we face in life. Prayer is our strongest weapon and our deepest connection to God.

Prayer

tseLOT

ENGLISH: Dear God, thank You for the story of Daniel and the lions. Thank You that You are more powerful than anything we fear. Help me to pray every day like Daniel did — morning, noon, and night. Help me to be brave and never be ashamed of loving You. When I face scary things, remind me that Your angel is with me. Keep me safe in Your loving arms always. In Jesus' name, Amen.
