Scene 1

[PICTURE: A land of Israel under dark clouds, with people looking sad and afraid, soldiers with swords threatening villagers. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Long ago, the people of Israel were in great trouble. A cruel king named Jabin ruled over them and made their lives very hard.

Scene 8

[PICTURE: Deborah standing tall and confident, agreeing to go with Barak, her expression showing courage and faith. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Deborah said, "I will surely go with you! But because of this, the honor of victory will not be yours — it will go to a woman." Deborah was not afraid because she trusted God.

“你這人怎麼這樣！明明是你自己不想去，還說我沒興趣，——你怎麼這樣！”

Scene 20

[PICTURE: Musical instruments — tambourines, harps, and drums — being played by joyful women and men as they celebrate God's victory. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

In their song, Deborah and Barak sang: "When the people offer themselves willingly, praise the Lord! The stars from heaven fought against Sisera!"

“你怎麼知道我的名字？”
“你怎麼知道我的名字？”

Ab mezmumu Deboran Barak'in "Hizbi bifik'adom mis zewefyu ni'Egzi'abher amesginu! Kewakhbiti semay antsar Sisera tewag'u!" ilomu zemeru.

Scene 21

[PICTURE: Peaceful green fields and happy families working and playing in the land of Israel, with bright sunshine. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

After this great victory, the land of Israel had peace for forty years. No enemy bothered them. The people could live, work, and worship God in safety.

Scene 22

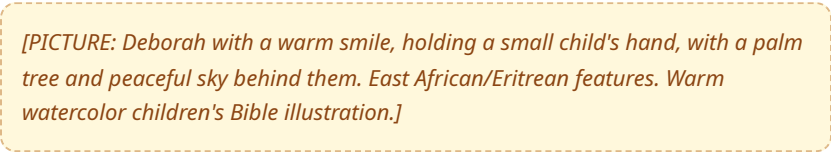

[PICTURE: Young children sitting around an elder who tells them the story of Deborah, their eyes wide with wonder and inspiration. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The story of Deborah was told to children for many generations. She showed everyone that God can use anyone — whether man or woman, young or old — to do amazing things.
