Scene 1

King Herod was a mean king. He did not like the people who loved Jesus. He wanted to make the Jewish leaders happy, so he decided to hurt the believers.

Scene 2

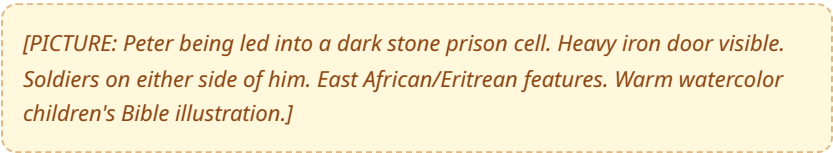

[PICTURE: Soldiers grabbing Peter by the arms, arresting him in a street. Peter looks calm but concerned. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

King Herod sent his soldiers to arrest Peter! Peter was one of Jesus's closest friends and a leader of the church. The soldiers grabbed him and took him away.

Scene 6

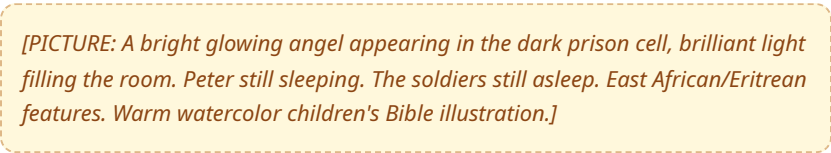

[PICTURE: Peter sleeping peacefully between two soldiers in the dark prison cell on the night before his trial. Chains visible on his wrists. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

The night before Herod planned to bring Peter to trial, Peter was sleeping. He was chained between two soldiers, sleeping so peacefully! Peter trusted God completely, even in prison.

Scene 7

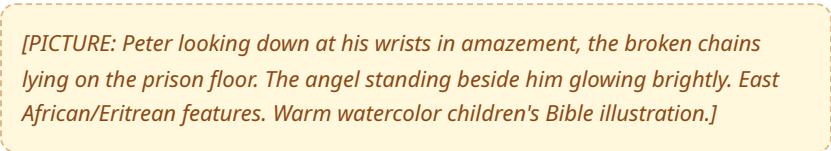

Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared! A bright light filled the dark prison cell. The angel shone so brightly! But the soldiers kept on sleeping — they didn't see anything!

Scene 12

[PICTURE: Peter and the angel walking past the first set of guards who are standing still like statues with their eyes closed, completely unaware. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

They walked past the first guard post. The guards didn't move! They didn't see Peter or the angel at all. It was as if Peter and the angel were invisible! God was protecting them.

Scene 13

[PICTURE: Peter and the angel passing a second guard post with more soldiers standing motionless. The corridor is dimly lit with torches on the walls. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

They passed the second guard post too! Again, the guards didn't notice a thing. Peter kept following the angel, step by step, through the dark prison hallways. God made them invisible to every guard!

Scene 14

[PICTURE: A large iron gate at the end of the prison corridor starting to swing open by itself. Golden light shining through the opening. Peter and the angel approaching. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

They came to the big iron gate that led to the city. Nobody opened it — but it swung open all by itself! The heavy gate moved without anyone touching it. God's power opened the way!

Scene 15

[PICTURE: Peter and the angel walking through the open iron gate onto a city street at night. Stars in the sky, cool night air. Peter's cloak flowing behind him. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Peter and the angel walked through the gate and down one whole street together. The cool night air touched Peter's face. He was outside! He was free! But he still thought it was a dream.

Scene 16

[PICTURE: The angel fading away into the night sky, becoming transparent with sparkles of light. Peter standing alone on the street looking up in wonder. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Then suddenly, the angel disappeared! One moment the angel was there, and the next moment — gone! Peter stood alone on the quiet street, looking around. The angel had finished his job.

Scene 17

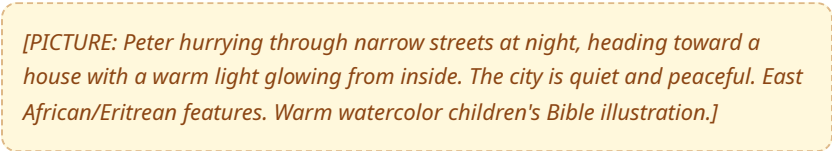

[PICTURE: Peter standing on the street with his hands on his head in amazement, eyes wide open, realizing this is real and not a dream. Stars twinkling above. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Now Peter knew it was real! "It's true!" he said. "The Lord sent His angel and rescued me from Herod's power!" Peter was so happy and thankful. God had answered the prayers of his friends!

፲፱ ሰዎች ስለ ፲፱ ሰዎች! "፲፱ ሰዎች!" ፲፱ "፲፱፱፱፱፱ ፲፱፱ ፲፱ ፲፱፱ ፲፱፱፱ ፲፱፱፱!" ፲፱፱ ፲፱ ፲፱፱ ፲፱፱፱፱ ፲፱፱ ፲፱፱ ፲፱፱ ፲፱፱ ፲፱፱!

Scene 18

Peter hurried through the dark streets. He knew exactly where to go — to the house of Mary, the mother of John Mark. He knew his friends would be there, praying for him. He couldn't wait to tell them!

Scene 19

[PICTURE: Peter standing at a wooden door, knocking gently. The house has warm light coming from the windows. A courtyard gate is visible. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Peter arrived at Mary's house and knocked on the outer gate. Knock, knock, knock! Inside, many believers were still gathered together, praying with all their hearts for Peter's safety.

Scene 21

[PICTURE: Rhoda inside the house telling the praying believers that Peter is at the door. The people looking at her with disbelief, some shaking their heads. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

"Peter is at the door!" Rhoda shouted. But they didn't believe her! "You're crazy!" they said. "Maybe it's his angel." They had been praying for Peter, but they couldn't believe God answered so quickly!

"මමත් මම මම මම!" මම මම මමමම මම මමමමමම! "මමමම!" මමමම

Scene 23

[PICTURE: The believers opening the gate and seeing Peter standing there. Their faces showing complete shock and joy. Some with mouths wide open, some reaching out to embrace him. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Finally, they opened the gate — and there was Peter! They were completely amazed! Their mouths dropped open! They could not believe their eyes. Peter was really standing there, free and alive!

[PICTURE: Peter inside the house, gesturing with his hands as he tells the whole group the amazing story of his escape. Everyone listening with wide eyes and joyful faces. East African/Eritrean features. Warm watercolor children's Bible illustration.]

Peter motioned for them to be quiet. Then he told them the whole amazing story — how the angel came, how the chains fell off, how they passed the guards, and how the gate opened by itself! Everyone praised God!
