2 But Pharaoh changed his mind! He gathered his entire army with horses, chariots, and soldiers. They chased after the Israelites with fury. The people of Israel looked back and saw the dust clouds of the approaching army. Fear filled their hearts.

Pharaoh: I will chase after the Israelites! I will catch them and destroy them. I will make them my slaves. I will bring them back to Egypt.

Moses: I will obey the Lord's command. I will lead the Israelites out of Egypt. I will bring them to the Promised Land.

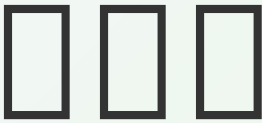

LESSON / Problems / Solutions

Jonah and the Big Fish

Jonah and the Big Fish • Bible Story

1 God told Jonah to go to the great city of Nineveh and warn the people to turn from their evil ways. But Jonah did not want to obey. He ran away in the opposite direction and boarded a ship going far across the sea, trying to hide from God.

Jonah: God told me to go to Nineveh and warn the people. But I don't want to. I will run away in the opposite direction and board a ship going far across the sea, trying to hide from God.

God: I will send a great wind against the ship, and it will be broken. I will also send a big fish to swallow Jonah.

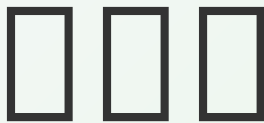

LESSON / Bible Story / Bible Verse

We cannot run away from God or hide from His plans.

Jonah did not want to obey God. He ran away in the opposite direction and boarded a ship going far across the sea, trying to hide from God.

Jonah and the Big Fish

Jonah and the Big Fish • Jonah 1:4-12

2 A violent storm arose and the ship was about to break apart. The sailors were terrified. Jonah knew the storm was because of his disobedience. He told the sailors 'Throw me into the sea, and it will become calm, for this great storm is my fault.'

Jonah: The sailors were terrified because of the storm. They were afraid of the ship breaking apart. Jonah told them to throw him into the sea.

Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet

Read the passage and answer the questions.

1 On the night before He died, Jesus shared a meal with His disciples. Then He got up, wrapped a towel around His waist, poured water into a basin, and began to wash His disciples' dusty feet — a job usually done by the lowest servant.

Question: What did Jesus do to show His love for His disciples?

Answer: Jesus washed the feet of His disciples, which was a task usually done by the lowest servant.

LESSON / Summary / Review

No task is too humble when we serve others with love.

Jesus showed His love for His disciples by washing their feet.
