Lesson Aim & Teacher Preparation

Lesson aim: Children will learn that Jesus loves and welcomes every child, including them.

Learning objectives

- Retell how Jesus welcomed the children.
- Explain that Jesus loves each child.
- Recite the memory verse (Mark 10:14).
- Say one way they know Jesus loves them.

You will need

- Bibles or printed story pages
- Crayons, paper, scissors, glue
- A mirror or hand-mirror craft materials

Teacher tip: Affirm each child personally — this lesson is about belonging and being loved.

Opening Prayer & Gathering

Welcome circle

Gather in a circle. Tell each child, 'Jesus loves you!' and let them say it to a friend.

Dear Jesus, thank you for loving each one of us. Help us to feel your love and to share it. Amen.

Icebreaker question

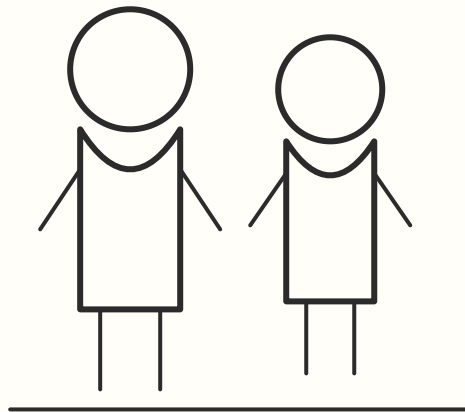

What makes you feel loved and special?

The Bible Story — Part 1

Crowds Follow Jesus

Everywhere Jesus went, crowds followed to hear him teach and to be healed. Parents wanted Jesus to bless their children, so they brought them close to him.

The Bible Story — Part 2

The Disciples Say No

The disciples thought Jesus was too busy and important for little children. They tried to send the children away. 'Don't bother Jesus,' they said.

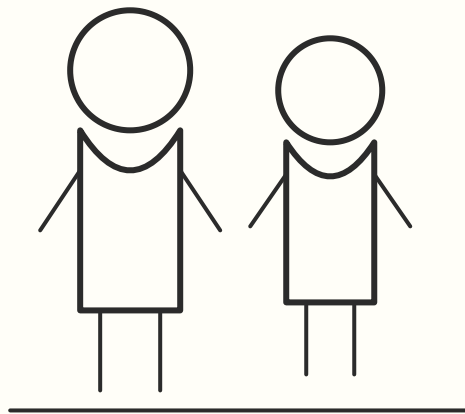

The Bible Story — Part 3

Let the Children Come

But Jesus was not too busy. He said, 'Let the little children come to me. Do not stop them!'

Jesus welcomed every child with open arms. Children were important and precious to him.

The Bible Story — Part 4

Jesus Blesses the Children

Jesus took the children in his arms, placed his hands on them, and blessed them.

Jesus said God's kingdom belongs to those who come to him like a child. Jesus loves you very much!

Memory Verse

"Let the little children come to me."

Mark 10:14 (ICB)

Read the verse together three times. Then trace it and say it from memory!

Let the little children come to me.

Teacher tip: Open your arms wide as you say the verse — just as Jesus welcomed the children.

Talk About It

Discussion questions for the group

Sit in a circle. Let everyone share. There are no wrong answers when we talk about God's Word!
