

SUNDAY-SCHOOL ACTIVITY PACK

Esther's Brave Choice

A Sunday-School Lesson on Courage & Faith

Written by Daniel Tesfamariam

FOR AGES 4-12

Learning to be brave and do what is right, trusting God.

A complete lesson pack for teachers and families — story, memory verse, discussion, games, crafts and activities. Memory verse based on the International Children's Bible (ICB).

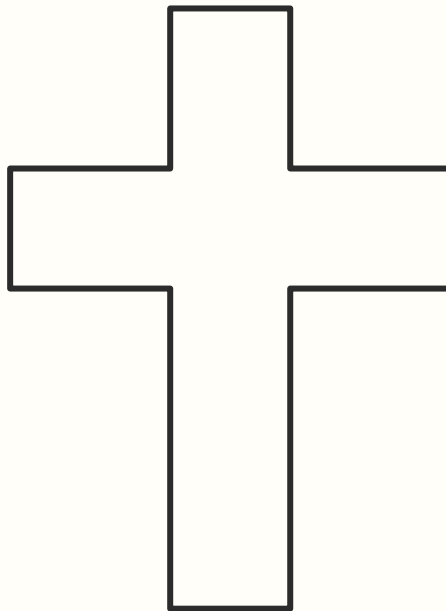

Welcome, Teacher!

Welcome to this lesson about Queen Esther, a brave young woman God used to save her people. This pack gives you everything for one Sunday-school session: the Bible story, a memory verse, discussion, games, a craft, and printable activities for children aged 4 to 12.

How to Use This Pack

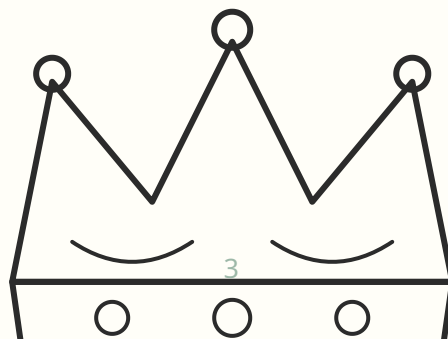

- Start with the Opening Prayer and Icebreaker (page 5).
- Read the Bible Story together (pages 6–9).
- Learn the Memory Verse (page 10) and discuss it (page 11).
- Choose activities, a game and the craft to match your class time.
- End with the Closing Prayer and hand out the certificate.

Teacher tip: Read the whole pack before class and pick the activities that fit your time and group size.

Lesson Aim & Teacher Preparation

Lesson aim: Children will learn that God can use anyone who is brave and trusts him to do what is right.

Learning objectives

- Retell the main events of Esther's story.
- Explain what it means to be brave for God.
- Recite the memory verse (Esther 4:14).
- Name one way to be brave and kind this week.

You will need

- Bibles or the story pages printed
- Crayons, pencils, scissors, glue
- Card or paper for the crown craft
- Optional: a toy crown or sticker jewels

Teacher tip: Set out crayons and craft supplies before class so transitions are smooth.

Opening Prayer & Gathering

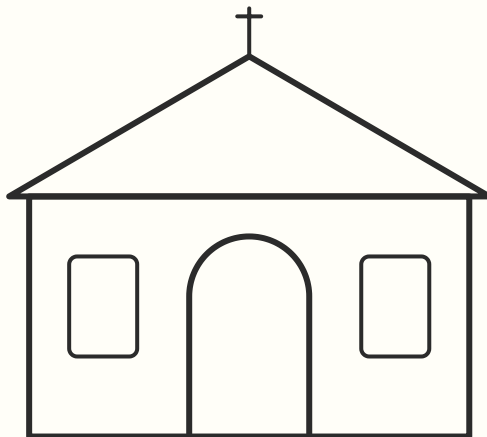

Welcome circle

As children arrive, greet each one by name. Gather in a circle and welcome everyone. Remind them that today's story is about being brave, even when it is hard.

Dear God, thank you for bringing us together today. Open our hearts to learn about being brave for you, just like Queen Esther. Amen.

Icebreaker question

When was a time you had to be brave? Share with the group.

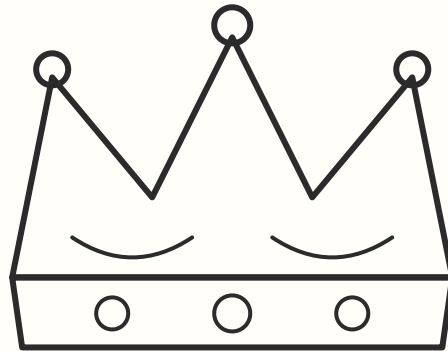

The Bible Story — Part 1

A New Queen

Long ago in the land of Persia, there was a great king named Xerxes. A young Jewish woman named Esther was chosen to be his queen. She was kind and beautiful.

Esther had been raised by her older cousin Mordecai, who loved her like his own daughter. He told her to keep it a secret that she was Jewish, for now.

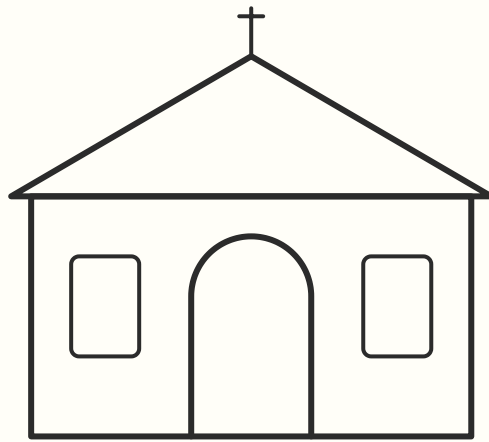

The Bible Story — Part 2

A Wicked Plan

The king had a proud helper named Haman. Haman was angry because Mordecai would only bow to God, not to him.

So Haman made a terrible plan and tricked the king into signing a law that all the Jewish people would be destroyed on one day.

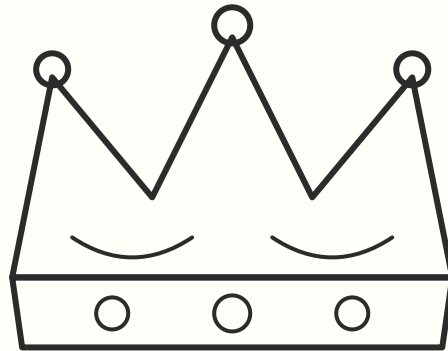

The Bible Story — Part 3

A Brave Choice

Mordecai sent word to Esther: 'You must go to the king and beg him to save our people!' But going to the king uninvited could mean death.

Mordecai said, 'Maybe you became queen for a time just like this.' Esther prayed and fasted, then made her brave choice: 'I will go to the king. If I die, I die.'

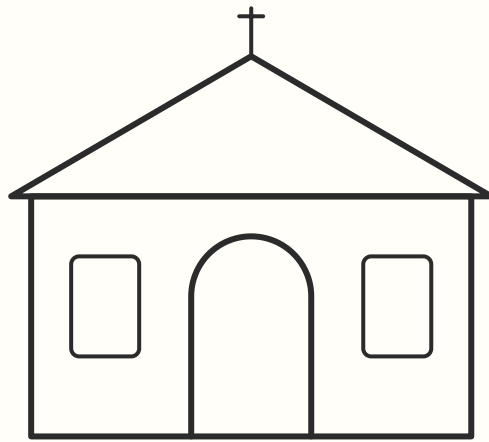

The Bible Story — Part 4

God Saves His People

Esther bravely told the king the truth about Haman's wicked plan. The king was angry — not at Esther, but at Haman!

Because Esther was brave, the king stopped the plan and the Jewish people were saved. God used one brave person to do something great.

Memory Verse

"Maybe you have become queen for just such a time as this."

Esther 4:14 (ICB)

Read the verse together three times. Then trace it and say it from memory!

Maybe you have become queen for just such a time as this.

Teacher tip: Break the verse into small phrases and add simple hand motions to help children remember it.

Talk About It

Discussion questions for the group

Sit in a circle. Let everyone share. There are no wrong answers when we talk about God's Word!

1. Why was Esther afraid to go to the king?
2. What did Mordecai say that helped Esther be brave?
3. Why did Esther pray and fast before she acted?
4. When is it hard for you to do the right thing?
5. How can we ask God to help us be brave?

Act It Out!

Retell the story with a simple drama

Teacher tip: Give children simple roles and props. Acting the story helps them remember it.

Roles & steps

1. Choose children to play Esther, Mordecai, the King and Haman.
2. Narrator reads the story slowly while actors mime the actions.
3. Esther bravely 'speaks' to the King to save her people.
4. End with everyone cheering because God saved the day!

Game: Brave Crown Relay

A fun game for the whole group

You need: two paper crowns, two chairs

How to play

1. Split into two teams.
2. Each child wears the crown, walks to the chair and back.
3. They pass the crown to the next player.
4. The first team to finish shouts 'Be brave!'

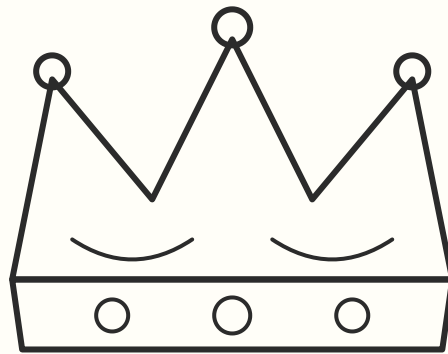

Teacher tip: Cheer for every child so being 'brave' up front feels safe and fun.

Craft: Make a Paper Crown

You can be brave, too!

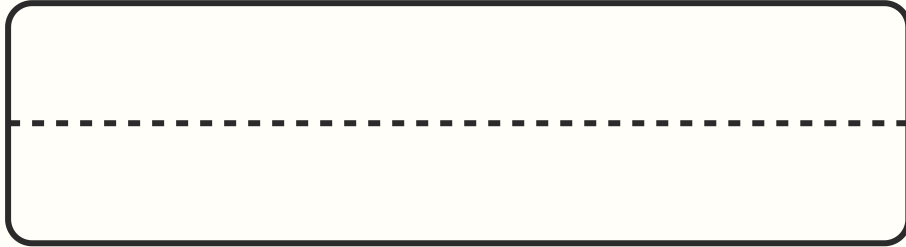

You need: card or paper, scissors, crayons, glue, sticker jewels

1. Cut out a crown band (use the template on the next page).
2. Colour it and decorate with jewels or stickers.
3. Wrap it around the child's head and tape the ends.
4. Remember: God can use YOU to do brave, good things!
